By Shuttle

The Yard offers free weekday shuttle service for employees and registered visitors to and from DUMBO (connecting to A, C, F trains) and Atlantic Terminal (connecting to G, 2, 3, 4, 5, B, D, N, Q, R and LIRR trains). To learn more about the shuttle routes and schedules, and for real-time shuttle tracking, download the TransLoc app.

Building 3 is the large white and brick building with the loading dock that wraps all the way around it. Enter the Yard via the turnstile between the two blue columns near the middle of the building.

To activate the turnstile, you'll need a visitor's QR code* issued by the Brooklyn Navy Yard. With the QR code facing up, hold your phone under the qSCAN box on the left side of the turnstile.**

Enter Building 3 through the gray double doors at the top of the loading dock stairs, and take the elevator to the 7th floor. Follow signs for the Research Yard.

Pratt Center for Community Development works for a more just, equitable and sustainable New York City in partnership with community-based groups, small businesses, and policymakers. Founded in 1963, Pratt Center is the oldest university-based community planning organization in the U.S. As part of Pratt Institute, we leverage professional skills in urban planning and public policy to work on the ground with community-based organizations to challenge systemic inequities and advance sustainable development.
